FIVE DEAD AND FOUR
DYING IN SHIPWRECK

The dead are: Mate J. M. Pierce; Seamen Asher Palmer, Henry Carter, Tim Brandt, and Frank Leaven, the latter dying after the rescue. The Abbot struck about 10 o'clock at night. At that time there was a driving southeaster and tremendous seas were running. The life-savers launched the lifeboat and started to the rescue. After battling with the heavy seas for three hours and getting near enough to distinguish several men clinging to the rigging, they were forced to abandon the attempt at rescue and await daylight.

EMPEROR TALKS
A GREAT DEAL

Radical Leader of the Reichstag Has This Complaint to Make of William.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—Chancellor von Bülow, replying in the reichstag today to an assertion of Eugene Richter the radical leader, that the country and the crown itself were harmed by the too frequent utterances of Emperor William, without consulting his ministers, said:

"In a constitutional state the leading statesmen must reckon with the individuality of the monarch. The stronger that individuality all the more is he inclined to influence the state's affairs, which does not always facilitate the statesman's official duties; but the strongly marked individuality of a ruler is a great advantage that cannot be underestimated. I have found many persons abroad that long for a monarch of accentuated personality."

"Nobody should blind himself against the grand lines in the character of our emperor. He has a free and unprejudiced mind, and there is nothing petty in him. Whatever you blame in him, he is no Philistine. If you wish to make attacks direct them against me."

The chancellor later referring to the remarks of Herr Liebermann von Sonnenberg said that he recommended Emperor William to receive the Boer generals if they sought presentation through the British ambassador General De Wet was accepted and then changed his mind.

GERMANS AGAIN
START A BATTLE

Three Ships Bombard a Venezuelan Fort and Burn a Town.

Maracaibo, Venezuela, Jan. 22.—Three German war ships, supposed to be the Panther, Vineta and Falke began shelling the fort of San Carlos at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The fort returned the fire. The engagement was in progress at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The correspondent of the American press in a row boat approached to within three miles of the fort at noon. The roar of the guns was terrific. The Panther appeared to be not more than 500 yards from the fort. Her guns were being fired every few minutes.

The fort could not be seen for the clouds of smoke, but it was plain that the Venezuelan gunners were answering the German fire splendidly and with great rapidity.

At one o'clock in the afternoon an explosion occurred apparently in the fort and a cloud of smoke covered part of the ramparts.

A number of Indian fishermen were intercepted fleeing from the direction of the fort in their dugout canoes. They reported that the smoke was from the burning village of San Carlos which had been shelled by the German ships, and was in flames.

The shelling of San Carlos has created much excitement among the German residents of this port, who have protested against the action of the war ships.

MOORISH ARMY IS VERY STRONG

Numerically It Was Twenty-five Thousand Soldiers But They are Very Poorly Armed.

Tangier, Morocco, Jan. 22.—An English drill sergeant in the service of the sultan has given the following details of the composition of the sultan's army: He says that the imperial forces total 25,000 men, including a men, all of whom are armed with Martini-Heckley rifles. Of the remainder 30 per cent. are armed with imitation Martini-Heckley manufactured in Fez, and the balance of the sultan's soldiers carry old flintlocks and muzzleloaders.

The artillery consists of twenty breech loading Krupps, twenty-three muzzleloaders, twelve Maxims, and twenty-one other machine guns. It is almost impossible to train the natives to handle artillery, as they believe cannon to be the invention of the devil. The gunners spend much time in prayer after firing each round while many of the natives refuse altogether to serve the guns.

The drill sergeant does not consider the sultan's situation to be desperate. He says that if the sultan can bring together his entire army before advancing the followers of the pretender are sure to desert and surrender in the fact of an overwhelming force.

TOBACCO MEN HARD AT WORK

REPORTS SHOW MUCH WORK TO BE DONE.

GENERAL TALK ON THE WEED

All Over the Country the Present Crop of Tobacco is Now Being Bought Up.

There is very little change in the aspect of the tobacco market since a week ago. There are one or two more warehouses receiving goods and working a force of sorters. Some of the warehouses that were already running, have put a few more hands at work so that it is safe to say that there are at least 1000 hands employed in the tobacco trade in this city.

Receiving Still Going On.
Receiving has been going on at the different warehouses for the last two weeks and all have enough leaf on hand to keep their forces working full blast. The dealers are paying from ten to fifteen cents a hundred more this year than last to the sorters and they have an easier class of tobacco to handle so that it should be a money maker for them.

Pay More for Sorters.
Some of the warehousemen say that one or two firms in the city are paying their sorters from ten to fifteen cents a hundred more than the established price, but these firms claim they are taking special pains with their packings and that the hands do not make any more per week than those in the other warehouses who are getting less money but can handle more leaf.

Floor Men Organize.
The floormen and packers of the local warehouses organized last Sunday and formed a branch of the federated trades union. The girls as yet have not formed an organization and are not likely to.

Leaf in Good Shape.
The leaf delivered thus far this year has been in first class shape and very few reductions have been made in the contract price of the crops. There is still considerable leaf that is not stripped but most of it will be ready for delivery by the first of next week.

Few Crops Yet Unsold.
There are some crops still in the hands of the growers that have not been sold but these are being gradually picked up by the buyers. The market for old goods still remains about the same. There is a moderate trade in small lots to manufacturers.

The general New York leaf market this week showed a healthy activity, all classes of cigar leaf being in good demand. Among the grades most called for 1901 Zimmer Spanish was quite prominent and 100 case lot sales were not infrequent. 1900 Pennsylvania broad leaf was another feature of the week's business, and the scarcity of desirable goods of this variety helped to emphasize the favor in which it is held. In Connecticut there was some experimental buying in shade grown forest sweat leaf. Sumatra sold in quantities rather smaller than it has been doing, though the aggregate volume of trade was far from unsatisfactory. In Havana there were numerous offers for old Remedios, but in view of the unfavorable reports concerning the new crop, holders of these goods preferred to retain them rather than accept the general low prices offered. The scarcity of wrapper leaf has become so apparent that nobody any longer denies it, and one of the results of this condition is the improved demand for Florida, which now sells freely on its own merits, and no longer is obliged to masquerade under the name of foreign traders.

Connecticut Valley.
Tobacco growers in this section who are holding on to their crops until they are offered a price satisfactory to them are complaining that others, either more timid, or more in need of immediate cash, are selling their tobacco for less than it is worth, and are earnestly urging all farmers to hold out for better figures than at present prevail. But sales go on just the same, though their number is not large and the quantity of leaf involved is comparatively insignificant. By far the greatest interest centers in the shade-grown leaf, and if the crop turns out as well as hoped and brings the high prices expected the average of ten-grown leaf will be considerably increased next season. In fact several of the smaller farmers in a few localities have decided to raise an acre or two each under shade and will combine their crop for better assorting and picking; than is possible with small single lots.

New York.
There is still little life in the tobacco industry here, although stripping has commenced and is quite generally under way. The warehouses are not yet open, but packers are preparing for work which will probably commence within the next week or ten days. Buyers, too, are getting ready for their campaigns and will commence riding in a few days. Just at present there is a little too much snow on the roads for the comfort, but either a hard frost or a warm rain will put them in a better condition for travel.

Lancaster, Pa.
The deliveries of new tobacco at the packing houses are becoming large, some dealers having already received 100,000 pounds and more, and they will, of course, continue to grow in magnitude until the season is over. I am very glad to be able to say there has been a great improvement in the character of the goods delivered. The action of many of the dealers, who either themselves or their agents visited the farmers from whom they purchased tobacco and examined the manner in which the stripping and assorting is being done, is having a good effect and there is more care exercised in keeping out the unmerchantable tobacco. The tobacco as a rule is of good quality, but many farmers, having sold out long ago, became careless in handling it, leaving it in the cellars too long before shipping or too long after that work was done, so that the goods got into bad condition and could not be accepted, because they were neither up to contract or merchantable.

St. Louis.
Business continues brisk in the leaf tobacco line in this city, and large shipments of all grades of leaf are going out daily. Nearly all traveling representatives of local houses are on the road and are sending in very satisfactory orders. Our dealers have made ample preparations to supply the wants of their customers, but good binders continue scarce or high. The cold snap has curtailed the trade of our retailers. Jobbers of the manufactured goods are doing a fair business and our tobacco factories are as busy as ever. Taken all in all, the tobacco trade of 1903 opens auspiciously.

Baldwinsville.
The recent thaw and rain has allowed tobacco growers in the Chemung valley to nearly complete removing their crop from the poles. The quality has proved far better than expected by growers and dealers alike. Two-thirds of the crop is sold around Chemung at fair prices, from 10 to 13 1/2 cents in bundle. Those who succeeded in tending from the poles early made first sales. Dealers have been slow to buy this season excepted when stripped and in bundle. Now that the remainder of the crop is taken down, dealers will doubtless begin to ride again. Many growers are preparing for next year's crop in hauling manure, and from present observations the acreage for 1903 will be about the same as the past season.

CANNOT FIND THE HOUSES FOR THEM

Beloit Workmen Are Ready To Go,
If They Cannot Secure Lodging Places.

Beloit's inadequate hostilities have long been notorious the length and breadth of the state, but it is a new development when workmen in the city cannot secure boarding places. That is the latest development among the many problems which Beloit is concentrating all energies to solve. A number of employees in the Fairbanks, Morse and company's works have threatened to leave if they cannot secure better accommodations.

Last summer skilled machinists in the Beloit shops were obliged to find lodging in all kinds of weird habitations. Box cars, tents, and barns were pressed into use, but with all the building that was going on hopes were high of a better time to come. Now that the dead of winter has come chilly nor'easters are no idle dream, and the workmen who are receiving $2.00, $2.50 a day and upward insist that if they cannot get the lodging for which they are willing to pay they will pull out.

CIGARETTE PEOPLE CALL IT HOLD-UP

Only Sellers of the Paper Cylinder in Rockford Object to Council's Action.

At the meeting of the Rockford common council this week, a petition was presented from Fay Lewis and Bros. Co., the big tobacco dealers, protesting against the recent action of that body in regard to the sale of cigarettes. With the hope of discouraging the use of the coffin nails the council some time ago passed an ordinance requiring all dealers who sold them to secure licenses.

Resulting from this action all dealers gave up the sale save Fay Lewis Co. At a meeting of the common council a week ago action was taken raising the amount of the license. The Lewis company immediately registered a protest against such a "hold-up." They pointed out the fact that the ordinance had failed in its original purpose as most cigarette smokers roll their own cigarettes and are not affected by legal enactment.

Art League Meeting: The art department of the Janesville Art League will hold its regular meeting with Mrs. E. F. Woods at her home on Park place on Friday afternoon at three o'clock. The subject will be the third epoch of architecture and Greek plastic art.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, January 22, 1863.—The public will be surprised to learn that the court martial in the Fitz John Porter case have found him guilty of the charges preferred against him. It had become the settled belief that no matter what an officer might do, he would escape punishment, but the action of the court in this case leads us to hope that justice is yet to be meted out to the disloyal and incompetent in our armies. It is a long road that never turns and this may be the beginning of the task of weeding out of public service those who are unfit to be there. The ice is broken in this respect, and others who deserve a like condemnation may yet be reached.

There is a great deal of senseless talk among the democrats of the north about stopping the war. We would be glad if some one would tell us how it is to be done. No man has a right to oppose the efforts of the government unless he can bring forward a better plan than to fight. If there were any hopes of an accommodation and settlement of difficulties

RALPH BINGHAM MADE 'EM LAUGH

ENTERTAINMENT ON Y. M. C. A.
COURSE WAS FUNNY.

SHOWED GREAT VERSATILITY

Played the Violin, Told Stories, Sang
Songs, Pounded the Piano, Et Cetera.

After an absence of several years, Ralph Bingham returned to Janesville Wednesday evening. He came with the distinct purpose of entertaining a few hundred of the purchasers of Y. M. C. A. entertainment course tickets, and he fulfilled his contract to the letter. From the moment that he emerged from the little dressing room at the side of the stage in the association auditorium, his couple of hundred pounds of good natured avoirdupois clad in a trim tuxedo, and his babyishly funny face peering bashfully over two or three chins and a torturing collar, until he finally ducked back into it, there was something doing all of the time.

Most of the time the audience was holding onto its sides in a futile attempt to keep from splitting. The rest of the hour and half which Mr. Bingham's "union" allowed him to devote to such programs, it was sitting back in its seats and laughing big, whole-souled laughs that were good to hear.

Meanwhile the genial heavyweight on the stage was doing a little of everything, and doing most of it well enough to drive the audience into another spasm. He recited "pieces" comic, serio-comic, and downright serious, and the ill-mannered auditors laughed and applauded all of them. It was no place for a dyspeptic.

By way of variety Mr. Bingham played a few operative selections on the violin. His numbers were the well-known Reremzzo. A thunder of applause induced him to respond with Delibes Pizzicato. Miss Ada Pond played his piano accompaniments with a considerable degree of sympathy and expression.

Mr. Bingham's violin playing, like his stories, had a tendency toward the grotesque, although unintentional. He displayed at times a remarkable pure and delicate tone, but marred it by a rude and unfeeling staccato. In trick bowing, sautille and leaping effects, he excelled. His pizzicato was clean and vibrant, the ballet air being played with great effect.

In addition to his other accomplishments, Mr. Bingham did a few things with the piano. Whatever may be said otherwise, they elicited the laugh. As a singer, he—well, when he was on the key it wasn't bad, and it helped to fill the ninety minutes. Altogether, he will be welcome when he comes again.

ELATED OVER BASE BALL HOPES

Madison Students Think They Have a Winner in This Year's Probable Team.

In the past ten years, so University of Wisconsin men say, prospects for a winning baseball team have not been so promising as now. They base their high hopes on the number of old men who will answer Bandell's call for candidates in about a month and on the fact that Bandell will be back in his old position as coach.

Preliminary work will not begin in the indoor cage until the semester examinations, in February, are out of the way. A new departure this year will be a training table, and strict training from the time of the first call. In addition to the cage work, the men will be put through a hard course of indoor gymnastics to fit them for hard outdoor grind.

Milwaukee's American league team will give the men a couple of weeks' practice early in the spring, playing a four or five inning game each day. During the season five games will be played with Beloit, Madison's old rival who secured the advantage in last year's matches. The state university men are already counting on a winning streak which will net them five straight. It is possible that Beloit may have something to say on this question. None of the games will be played here as usual in past years.

...Forty Years Ago...

In a just manner and without dishonor it would be proper to indulge in them; but there are none. The rebels will not submit to the government, and they say they have no terms to offer—nothing but "unconditional separation will be accepted."

We learn that the liberal contribution of fifty one dollars was made in the Congregational church in this city last Sunday for adding our sick and wounded soldiers in the field. The funds have been forwarded to the Chicago Sanitary commission. If other churches have made contributions, we would like to be informed of it that the proper notice may be made.

The irrepressible George Francis Train who recently lectured in this city, announces that he intends to go to Murfreesboro and get exchanged as a rebel, in order that he may reach Richmond and settle up the war with Jefferson Davis. Probably, on his arrival at Murfreesboro, Gen. Rosecrans will order him sent to the lunatic asylum at Nashville.

ROCKFORD PARTY VISITS JANESVILLE

Janesville Knights of Columbus Entertained Rockford Knights at Assembly Hall Last Evening.

Members of the Rockford lodge of Knights of Columbus were handsomely entertained last evening at Assembly hall by the members of the local lodge at a social party and supper. The hall had been tastefully decorated and frappe booths were located in the corners where the guests might stop for refreshments. In the reception room at the front of the hall, ladies had been arranged and luncheon was served during the evening to the guests by a committee of ladies. About seventy-five couples were present and spent a very enjoyable evening dancing. Smith's orchestra of six pieces furnished the music and the numbers drew frequent applause from the guests.

The Rockford party came to Janesville over the interurban and had a special car which was held until one o'clock for them. Before their return home they expressed themselves as being highly gratified with their evening's pleasures and hoped the party would lead to frequent exchanges of hospitality. The Rockford party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. L. Schmauss, Dr. and Mrs. Culhane, Mr. and Mrs. Gertrude Golden, Louise Carroll, Pearl Hank, Alice Wash, Alice Culhane, Nellie Quirk, Martha Doran, Leone Smith, Elizabeth Stone, Kittle Burns, Mildred Burns, May Dorant, Mary Callahan, Rev. Father Murphy, Messrs. Frank Plimney, D. McGuire, Ed. Cardy, M. Doran, F. O'Brien, Thos. Sizer, Dr. Andrew Gulhane, C. E. Collins, Jas. Burns, Robt. Burns, W. Murphy, James Crattick, Ed. O'Connor and Emmet Hickey.

Father Collins of Fond du Lac and Father Harlan of Edgerton were also in attendance at the party.

GO TO WATERTOWN TO INVESTIGATE

Canning Factory Promoters Are in That City Today to Meet Citizens.

P. Hohenadel, Jr., P. A. Marsa, J. H. Bellnap, Fred Bellhartz and Rev. W. A. Goebel went to Watertown this morning to spend the day. Rev. Goebel accompanied Mr. Hohenadel and party who will look about Watertown with the idea of locating a canning and pickle factory at that place if they can get sufficient income from the city and a sufficient acreage of corn and cucumbers.

These gentlemen now have a proposition before the people of Monroe and while waiting their answer will look over several other cities in this territory with a view of locating a factory in one of them.

Monroe seems to be making determined effort to have the factory located there. The Monroe Daily Journal of Monday has the following which shows that the committee appointed to select a site are keeping things moving.

The committee to select a site for the canning factory met this afternoon in the Business Men's association rooms. Nearly every member of the committee was present and are determined to leave no effort undone on their part to secure a site. Owing to engagements this afternoon the committee could not go out to view the prospective sites, but will do so tomorrow. As the factory must be located near enough to the two railways to permit of sidetracks, the location will be somewhere in the southwestern part of the city.

Several pieces of property were discussed but nothing definite can be done until they have a better understanding of the lay of the land, which can only be arrived at by a personal inspection. If a site is found that will meet the requirements the committee will recommend its purchase.

RICHARD CARLE A VERSATILE WRITER

The Joint Author of the Storks Has Accomplished Much in His Line.

Richard Carle, who staged "The Storks," is known as one of the most industrious men in his business. By way of paradox, work is Mr. Carle's particular form of diversion. He writes music and lyrics, some times to order and often with no market in sight. While traveling his first thought after engaging apartments at a hotel is to hire a piano and a typewriting machine. Flanked by these readily procurable consolers, Mr. Carle passes his time to his own entire liking. For several seasons he refused engagements outside of New York, taking what work he could find there and making his position secure by writing songs and even whole scenes for such long-lived productions as needed new material at intervals. He made several trips abroad with companies that were thought likely to stir London. "The is making the welkin ring with his rhythmic measures, while here and there a lesser songster is carolling out his last warbling notes. But of all the voices of the gloaming, Philomel, that tuneful muse of the night, most entrances us. Now in a very ecstasy of rapture, she is trilling out a flood of richest melody; now, in an intoxication of joy, she bursts forth in an overwhelming paroxysm of tuneful harmony; now rollicking up and down the gamut as though she could scarce contain herself for glee; and now, her impassioned song singing in gentle cadence until its harmonious measures are almost melting away, again to break forth in a full-toned fantasia of gladdest emotion.

Yes, this earth of ours is indeed beautiful, and replete, beyond expression, with everything that enchants and delights. Well might the angels sing for joy when they first saw her in her ripe perfection. Yet though so attractive, our home in the great hereafter will far, far surpass in glory and in splendid magnificence. Unless indeed by refusing to live in accordance with the Creator's behests, and rejecting the atone-

SIX O'CLOCK CLUB COME FEBRUARY 10

Madison Monthly Supper Club To Be the Guests of the Twilight Club.

A meeting of the Six O'Clock club was held in Madison last week for the purpose of making arrangements for their visit to this city on February 10. It is the idea of the Madison party to bring enough people to this meeting to impress Janesville with the greatness of Madison. The party will come over the North-Western on a special which will arrive in Janesville in time for supper, which will be served at 6:15. The party will return promptly after the meeting so that all will be back in Madison by 11:30. It is expected that a party of 100 will come to the city and as that is the limit all applications over that number will be denied.

The topic will be the "Negro Problem" and the presiding officer and list of speakers will be furnished by the Madison club. The conditions of the negro especially in the south will be discussed. The state university will furnish a number of the speakers, so that the meeting will be one of the most interesting ever held in Janesville.

The Twilight club are making preparations to give the visitors a royal welcome and to return the compliment paid them at their session in Madison.

MADE THE JOURNEY WITHOUT HIS WIFE

A Former School Superintendent Thought His Wife Was Playing a Joke on Him.

A little story of former Supt. of Schools, D. D. Mayne is now going the rounds, in which Mr. Mayne is made to bear the brunt of the humor. Not many nights ago he and his wife were invited to attend a gathering in this city of a club to which they formerly belonged. They accepted with pleasure.

In some way they failed to understand on which train they were to have come to this city. At any rate when Mr. Mayne appeared at the Madison depot his wife was not in sight. He immediately, for reasons that appeared to him convincing, leaped to the conclusion that she had taken an earlier train and was in Janesville awaiting him. Without further hesitation he boarded the train.

On arriving at the Janesville home where he was to be entertained he was assailed with many queries regarding his wife's health. He passed them off laughingly, feeling confident that they were only attempting to mislead him, while his wife was about to spring from some place of hiding. But the minutes wore on and still the questions continued until Mr. Mayne called for an explanation.

Finding that no Mrs. Mayne had appeared in the scene, he called up his Madison home by phone, and was dumfounded to learn that his wife was still there, waiting for him to take her to the depot. His feelings can be better imagined than described.

A GREAT TRUTH.

How It Has Spread From Home to Home in Janesville.

In every part of Janesville; in the homes of the wealthy, in the humble abode of the man of toil, 'tis now a well-known fact—a great truth—that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought more comfort to backache sufferers and cured more sick kidneys than any medicine of modern times.

Mr. H. P. Hanson of 103 Pleasant St., engineer employed at the Janesville Machine Co., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me all the good that could be expected and I recommend them to any one who may be troubled with lame back or any kidney disorder. After procuring them at the People's Drug Store I took them and felt better, sleep better, my back did not ache like it did, and I did not rise in the morning with a lame and sore back. I suffered from these symptoms for four or five years and I was more than pleased at the results obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's and take no other.

RICHARD CARLE
In "THE STORKS"

Belle of New York," "The Belle of Bohemia" and "The Casino Girl" among them. Until last season his visits in the West have been limited, practically by his engagement in "the Lady Slavey" and two casino reviews. In the production of "The Storks" he figures as joint author of the book, stage director and principal comedian, and from all accounts this latest musical fantasy, is not only the most triumphant effort of his career, but the season's most pronounced operatic hit, and undoubtedly one of the most important bookings of the season, that should pack the Myers Grand Friday, January 23.

Sprightly Ruth Peebles, who has a happy temperament to please was seen in the role of Annette with King Dodo last season, and one of our exchanges speaks in glowing terms of her ability as a soubrette. She has: First of all, beauty, youth and grace, and a voice that is not excelled by any soubrette of our day; she dances well, and her performance has won success in every city visited by this organization.

The Breath of the Gloaming

(By a Banker.)

The orb of day has sunk in the west, and the shades of the gloaming are gathering around. The carmine, and the orange, and the gold, which have suffused the occidental skies in a blazing flood of many-hued glory have by an imperceptible transition given place to an ever deepening mauve or empurpled amethyst, against which the trees of the forest stand out in sharpest silhouette. The loveliest of all, that fairy of the wood, the silver birch, hangs its drooping boughs, a very vision of grace and beauty, the softly lighted western sky glistening through the gently moving branchlets and pendant leaves and catkins. The Lombardy poplar, stately and erect, towers upwards towards the skies; the sturdy oak, dark and sombre, permits no gleam of evening light to penetrate through its dense foliage; and the trembling aspen quivers as though struck with mortal fear.

And now one by one the stars of heaven begin to shine forth, though not until the nearer neighbors of our system are blazing in their glory. Hesperus, fairy of the night, rides brightest of them all, her soft yet brilliant lustre growing ever more and more translucent. Mars, too, his blood-red splendor waxing yet brighter and brighter; while more beautiful than all, the pale thin crescent of light, scarce pencilled on the hidden orb of the Queen of Night, adds yet more to the soft beauty of the quickly waning crescent; while one by one the mighty distant blazing suns glitter and scintillate in the ever darkening vault of heaven.

And not we only are lost in ecstasy at the witching evening shades. For those of the choristers of the woods whose songs are of the night are pouring forth their poems of harmonious melody. The blackbird, loth to nestle down until the last gleams of the waning twilight have faded away, is still piping his amorous lays, the thrush, too, with his richer voice, ment, of the Redeemer, we are refused admittance, and turned back into the darkness by the angel who with drawn sword guards the gates of paradise.

FOREIGN TRADE

The figures of the foreign commerce of the United States during the 11 months ending with November, which has just been completed by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, indicate a phenomenal activity among the manufacturers of the country and exportations quite as large as could be expected in view of the crop shortage of last year. The value of manufacturers' materials imported into the United States during the 11 months ending with November this year is $407,602,599, against $353,417,285 in the corresponding months of last year, and forms 46 1-2 per cent of the total imports, against 44 per cent of the total imports in the corresponding months of last year. Manufacturers exported during the 11 months of 1902 amount to $377,635,961, against $362,392,181 in the corresponding months of last year, and form 31.8 per cent of the total, against 27.8 per cent of the total exports in the same months of 1901. The total imports are 75 million dollars in excess of those for the corresponding months of last year, and of this increase of 75 millions, 54 millions was in the class "manufacturers materials" and the remainder manufacturing and luxuries, articles of food and animals showing a reduction of ten millions as compared with the importations during the corresponding months of last year.

Nearly all of the great articles required for use in manufacturing, with the single exception of India rubber, show a marked increase in importations. Importations of raw silk, for example, amount to $40,905,393 in the eleven months of this year, against $35,411,000 in the corresponding period of 1901; hides and skins, $53,022,521, against $50,877,797 in the eleven months of last year; tin for use in manufacturing tin plate, $19,532,867, against $17,415,392 in the corresponding months of last year. India rubber importations show a slight falling off, the total for eleven months being $22,568,786 this year, against $25,929,985 in the same months of last year.

FOOTBALL PAYS

The annual report of the athletic directors of outdoor sports of the university develops the fact that it pays to be an athletic director even better than it does to have brains and be judge of some county or even of a circuit court. For a few months each fall the football coach can secure four or five thousand dollars for his services and then rest upon his past laurels. It is an inducement to the college bred man of the future to go in for athletics rather than books so that when he leaves college he can be assured of a steady income for several years without having to think of business. When an athletic association can show a balance sheet of forty thousand dollars for less than eight months' work, then the system of education should be dropped and athletics placed upon the curriculum of the college and more men given an opportunity to learn football and baseball so that they may go out into the world fully equipped to earn their living as paid athletes. Brains are at a discount it is brawn that counts now.

BILL FOR BARBERS

Like every profession the barbers of the state of Wisconsin are endeavoring to create a better class of barbers for the future, better shops and better sanitary regulations. They have the welfare of the public in their minds and also the bettering of their own conditions. With this in view they have formulated a bill that will go before this legislature for consideration to make a board of examiners whose duty it shall be to examine all candidates for the profession as to their proficiency and to their knowledge of the diseases of the face and scalp and the treatment for the same. The bill is one with a most worthy object in view and if the legislators see fit to pass it the coming generation of barbers will be better fitted to meet all emergencies and will be higher grade workmen than have hitherto been common. The bill itself does not place any expense upon the state but places all the costs upon the barbers. It merely places the professions and the jurisdiction of the shop within the pale of the law and of the local health officers. One feature of the bill is that it works on hardships upon the barbers themselves and in the end will benefit them.

SPASMS OF REFORM

Madison is just at present undergoing a spasm of reform and as a conclusion the gambling houses have all been closed and the proprietors warned by the police not to open up again—for the next day or two at least. The dispatch which announced this fact and published in a Milwaukee paper also commented that he senate had held a special session so that certain senators could prove an alibi if need be they having had the trip before hand. Madison is a very wicked place if reports from ambitious correspondents seeking to fill space can be relied upon and with out doubt there are many bad places in the Capitol city as there are in every city of its size in the state. To openly lay all the wickedness that has been existing for years to the presence of the legislature is a little to unjust to the state at large. It is a good thing to have the gambling rooms closed but the next question is whether they will keep closed or not. That remains to be seen.

VENEZUELA

Now that the Germans have really begun war by firing upon a Venezuelan fort the South American mudle has become more complicated than over. Petty revolutions become the daily pastime for the president and rulers of the little South American republics and an actual war with some foreign power is to them and a plaything that should make these fiery Latin people all unite. There has been talk for years past of the formation of a United States of South America in imitation to that of the northern hemisphere but nothing has been definitely done about it and all remains still in the same chaotic state that has existed since Spain lost her colonies and they became miniature republics. This common trouble may bring the unity. Colombia has opened its ports to the Venezuelan trade and has sent letters of condolence to President Castro. Venezuela itself has become one hot bed of patriotism and enthusiasm. The Latin people, no matter how much their blood has become mixed with the Indian tribes of the isthmus, still remains fiery and enthusiastic. They will hurrah one day weep the next and hurrah the next. Enthusiasm is a motto of the country. Castro is an able leader and should he come out of his present difficulties with honor and glory he would bid fair to the Bolivar of the twentieth century and cement the South American states into ne federation.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS

The democrats in the Missouri house tabled a resolution requesting W. J. Stone to work in the United States senate to place alum on the free list. One democratic member was so excited that he shook his fist at the speaker for allowing the resolution to be read. That alum flavor is getting so strong in Jefferson City that Stone may have to call in his health association to contract its effects.

OUT IN IDAHO

Idaho has just taken a new departure which is of great consequence for her welfare. The republicans, for the first time in half a dozen years, have regained control of the state. A republican, Weldon R. Heyburn, has been elected to the senate to succeed Helfeldt, democrat. Idaho has a sense of democracy and populism which will probably cure her citizens of any further desire to experiment with either of those distempers in the near future.

OLD DEMOCRACY

Democratic papers are cackling over the suspension of the duty on foreign coal for one year, and the removal of duty on anthracite of a certain grade, as a triumph for the free trade views of the democratic party. While the republicans in congress have been at work to relieve suffering, the democrats have been playing politics, hoping to injure the principle of protection. Their bragging noise is simply another example of a condition so forlorn that they catch at every straw.

Madison's chief of police was out of town when the order came to close the gambling joints and so was the mayor. When the small games in Janesville are to be stopped Chief Hogan goes around in person and tells the proprietor to shut up or he will put up in court the next day.

More effects of the coal strike are felt each day in Janesville. One factory closed down for a day and one will close down for two or three or until the car of coal it now has on the road arrives.

Every one is watching the papers these days for news of the doings of the Municipal League. If nothing appears each issue it is no sign that nothing is being done and sensations will be the order of news when it does.

When a man can receive five thousand dollars a year for coaching a football team why should he try and be a prosperous lawyer or merchant at an income of fifteen hundred or two thousand?

Business men are wishing for snow these days and so are the farmers. Do you not suppose it would be possible to oblige them with a little old Dame Nature?

Madison has closed its gambling halls so that the poor legislator may not lose all his money but can send some home to raise the mortgage he gave on the farm to be elected.

Janesville game cocks are crowing over Madison birds and Janesville sports may possibly have some of the Capitol city's money to spend today.

Tobacco in this vicinity seems to be burning up without waiting for the individual consumer to get in his due work.

PRESS COMMENT

Kaulanna Sun: The stock markets report money as being easy, but coal is as hard to get as it was earlier in the season.

Eau Claire Telegram: The truth of the matter is that many of the oleo products are infinitely to be preferred to the average country-butter.

Chippewa Herald: Princess Louise of Saxony is coming to this country soon. Laura Bigger and Mrs. Schissler should be appointed a committee of two to make her stay a pleasant one.

Chippewa Independent: Congressman Jenkins has made another grand stand play. He has introduced a resolution to take possession of the coal mines. It means just playing for a time, that is all.

Waupun Leader: In his annual message the governor of Minnesota says the primary election law is a success, but recommends that candidates of all parties be put on the same ticket. A good suggestion.

Green Bay Gazette: Possibly the public will learn enough of the inside of the coal business before the winter is over to repay it for the trouble, inconvenience and suffering resulting from our fuel famine.

Fond du Lac Reporter: Now that "Rob" has spoken, all the legislators need to do to promote harmony is to obey. There never was a more reasonable man than Governor La Follette when he has his way.

Waupaca Post: Judge Burnell has cut that kissing verdict from $500 to $300. Possibly the judge had experience with Neenah girls before he went on the bench, of course, and therefore knows what those kisses were actually worth.

Whitewater Register: Senator Spooner received the solid vote of the republican legislative caucus last evening, 104 votes. The action does much to restore the gloss which has been rubbed off the good name of Wisconsin the last year.

Madison Journal: If the Milwaukee Free Press could once decide whether the state tax commission is a blessing or a curse, its course in following Governor La Follette would less resemble a tossing chip in the wake of a struggling tug.

Milwaukee News: In his message the governor has indicated that he considers the subject of taxation of the greatest importance of any of the questions to be passed upon by the legislature. It is given precedence over the primary election question and it should so be considered by the legislature.

Sturgeon Bay Advocate: The fuel situation has assumed such grave proportions in Milwaukee as to induce some of the owners of the fine shade trees on upper Grand avenue to cut them down to be used in the furnaces of the palatial homes. This is indeed a sad spectacle, and indicates that the conditions are really worse than people in the timber belt are able to realize.

Manitowish Pilot: In common parlance "it is up to the governor" to redeem his pledges before coquetting with further political preferment. If he should, perforce, again fail to give the people a more equitable basis of taxation and primary election law that will work, his senatorial ambitions will be nipped in the bud. The voters certainly will not broaden his political horizon. If, in narrower environment, he shows himself to contingencies which may face him. The execution of his pledges will give him prestige, the non-fulfillment of them will show that he has been "weighed in the balance and been found wanting."

Milwaukee Sentinel: The move ment to disqualify married teachers will in time tend to one result—a great increase in the number of men instructors in the public schools. The demand for thoroughly equipped teachers will each year be more insistent, and only the persons who can devote their whole lives to teaching will be acceptable to those entrusted with the educational affairs of the city or state.

Milwaukee Wisconsin: Governor La Follette is right in saying that a railway commission is a necessary concomitant to tax legislation which shall increase the taxes of the railways. Without a check of that kind upon the rising of railway rates the people of Wisconsin, if railway taxation were raised, would be utterly at the mercy of the common carriers, which would make them pay, in increased freight charges, 2 cents, at least for every cent of increased taxation upon the property of the railways.

DOES IT MEAN PURE REVENGE?

Warnings Are Given Saloon Men To Be Closed Up at Eleven, Sharp.

Some people outside the Municipal League think that there are things about town, other than the league has taken up that might be remedied. They have informed several prominent saloon keepers that the first time their places are open after eleven o'clock they may expect trouble. It appears that they suspect that the saloon keepers in question are in sympathy with the league movement and are taking this means to get back at them.

Mixed Bathing to Be Allowed. Mixed bathing will be permitted next year at the majority of German seaside resorts.

DECLINES GIFT FROM MINERS

TO ORGANIZE WEST VIRGINIA

Surp's in the Treasury, Amounting to Nearly $1,000,000, Is to Be Used to Strengthen the Mineworkers in That Field.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—By request of President John Mitchell the United Mine Workers' resolutions committee reported adversely to the convention a resolution sent by an Illinois local recommending that the executive board be authorized to set apart $100,000 "for the purchase of a permanent home in the city of Indianapolis for President John Mitchell." The convention, understanding Mr. Mitchell's position, adopted the report. Mr. Mitchell said that money should not be appropriated for the personal advantage of any man, unless that man was on strike at the command of his union, and that the resolution if adopted would set a most dangerous precedent. Besides, he did not wish to be so distinguished for his efforts in behalf of the miners.

For Polish Paper.

Another resolution, which provoked considerable discussion, provided that a paper be published by the organization in the Polish language. The debate became very warm at times, and the matter was referred to the executive board for final disposal. If, after a canvass for subscriptions among the miners, it is shown that it would be supported, such a paper may be established.

Resolutions favoring the establishment of a permanent strike fund by levying 25 cents per month on each member, and for starting co-operative stores by the United Mine Workers, were not concurred in.

Favor Increase in Pay.

Nearly all the locals sent resolutions favoring an increase in the wage scale, ranging from 15 to 25 per cent. The resolutions also declare in favor of the run-of-mine basis and the weighing of coal in the miners' cars. This is construed to mean that the coal should be weighed as it comes from the mines and before any "docking" is made or screening done. Smaller differentials between pick and machine mining are also demanded, and an increase in the wage of inside and outside common laborers is urged.

Wage Committee Meets.

The wage committee, of which W. H. Haskins of Ohio is chairman, and which consists of sixteen miners, got down to work. It is sifting the various demands from the locals, and will try to strike a reasonable mean. This committee frames the demand to be made upon the operators in the competitive districts.

It is understood that the surplus in the treasury, amounting to nearly $1,000,000, that may be used in organizing the mines, is to be devoted entirely, if necessary, to the West Virginia and the Virginia fields, and it is the purpose to send a host of organizers into those states and attempt to get every miner there into the union.

Had Canfield Checks.

New York, Jan. 22.—David W. Buell, who is under bail on the charge that he is the manager of Canfield's gambling house, has been arrested in Jersey City. In his pocket were checks signed by Richard S. Canfield, for $19,000 and $3,000, payable to Buell's order and endorsed by him.

Value of Capital.

Once upon a time two utter bankrupts were considering ways and means of getting needed money.

"I know how we can make $9," said one.

"How?" asked the other.

"Raise a dollar note to $10 by placing a cipher after the one."

"Where will we raise the dollar?"

"Then the scheme failed for want of capital."

Moral.—The great financial difficulty is in raising the first dollar.—New York Herald.

NATURE'S OWN CURE

Hyomel Cures Catarrh Without Dangerous Drugging of the Stomach.

Not until Hyomel was discovered has it been possible to truthfully say that a remedy for catarrh was known.

This remedy is breathed through the Hyomel inhaler for a few minutes four times a day, and during that time every particle of air taken into the air passages and lungs is impregnated with the germ killing and health giving Hyomel. It is the only treatment that cures catarrh.

Stomach drugging often causes disordered digestion or brings on some other diseases, and never makes a permanent cure of catarrh. Hyomel not only kills the germs in the throat and nose, but penetrates to the minutest air cells in the lungs and enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood. It frees the mucous membranes from poisonous microbes and gives perfect health.

A complete outfit costs but $1.00 and in eludes an inhaler, dropper, and sufficient Hyomel for more than a month's treatment.

The People's Drug company have so much faith in the merit of Hyomel that they agree to return the money to any purchaser who may be dissatisfied.

D. D. D. guaranteed a permanent cure for

Winter Eczema

Ring Worm, Erysipelas, Barbers Itch, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Itching Piles and all diseases of the skin

Diseases of the skin are due to parasites and not to tainted blood. Thousands of wretched people become hopeless and desperate—imagining they have an incurable case of blood poisoning, when in reality their affliction is simply caused by the activity of a local parasite, which can be cleared away in a hurry.

The wonderful D. D. D. remedy was discovered and formulated by working on the theory of parasitic irritation and it has never failed to effect a cure on every case of skin disease. The skin was created to protect the tenderer tissues beneath. For this reason it is able to withstand the effect of contact with most impurities. Its protection is only assailed when living, foreign organisms burrow into it. Skin diseases can be likened to the eruption created by ants in making their ant-hills.

The D. D. D. remedy quickly and absolutely removes the parasite without irritation, burning or itching. At the same time it softens the skin and heals and soothes the afflicted part.

See what a citizen of your own section says:

After having what I supposed was an incurable disease, being afflicted for twenty years with eczema on my hands, and having spent hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills I was persuaded to try the D. D. D. Remedy and in three weeks was completely cured. I believe that the D. D. D. Remedy is the only absolute cure for eczema to be found.

CHAS. I. SLOAN, Janesville, Wisconsin.

It is utilized by every general family physician who has taken the trouble to investigate the work it is accomplishing.

It is used in the Cook County Hospital, Chicago, and in many hospitals throughout the country.

It will clear off any parasitic break in the skin in from 3 to 60 days' time.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue, just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC

Is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates strength and health. ## UTTER PRAISE FOR THE MILITIA

PRETTY CEREMONY AT SIGNING

Executive Is Surrounded by Secretaries and Representatives, Who Facilitate Each Other on the Excellence of the New Measure.

Washington, Jan. 22.—President Roosevelt signed the militia bill recently passed by congress. The final act in the making of the new law was attended by a pretty ceremony. Gathered around the table as the president appended his signature to the measure were Secretary Root, Secretary Shaw, Assistant Secretary Sanger, Representatives Dick, Parker, Stark, Wiley, Conroy, Gaines and Bristow, all of the house committee on military affairs; W. E. Marsh, secretary of the committee; Gen. M. H. Byers, adjutant general of Iowa; Gen. Bird S. Spencer, adjutant general of New Jersey, and Col. E. J. Dimmick, secretary of the National Guard association.

After the president had signed the bill Secretary Root delivered a speech of congratulation to the committee on the enactment of so excellent a measure. Gen. Dick, the author of the bill and the president of the National Guard association, made a fitting response.

President Roosevelt then spoke of the merits of the bill. He expressed the hope that no president ever would be confronted by such an emergency as would render it necessary for him to avail himself of the services of the troops provided for in the bill, but congratulated the committee and the country on its enactment, and said he regarded the citizen soldiery of the nation as a most important factor in the protection of the country. The president gave the pen with which he had signed the measure to Col. Dimmick.

ATTACKS REBATES.

Anti-Trust Measure Condemns Practice on Part of Railroads.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Senator Elkins introduced a bill which covers the features of anti-trust legislation so far as it relates to railroads. It contains the provisions which have been recommended by Attorney General Knox as to the punishment of those who receive as well as those who give rebates. It provides for the punishment of corporations by fine instead of imprisonment of officials; also for injunctions to prevent discriminations. The Elkins bill is the result of conferences among various senators, most of them being members of the interstate commerce committee.

The bill was referred to the committee on interstate commerce, of which Senator Elkins is chairman, and it is the intention of the committee to take it up Friday.

Among other provisions of the bill are the following: The wilful failure to file tariff rates and observe them subjects the road to a fine of $1,000 or $20,000; granting or receiving rebates subject the corporations or persons to the same fine. The bill gives the courts power to compel the attendance of witnesses, both carrier and shipper, who are required to answer on all subjects relating directly or indirectly to the controversy; the court also can compel the production of all books and papers, but all witnesses shall have the same immunity from prosecution and punishment as now provided by law.

PROBE BRIBERY CHARGE.

Mr. Lessler Furnishes Two Names to the Committee.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The subcommittee of the house committee on naval affairs, which is investigating the charge made by Representative Lessler of New York that he had been approached for the purpose of influencing his action as a member of the committee on the proposition to authorize the construction of submarine torpedo boats, will make at least a partial report to the full committee.

Mr. Lessler was again before the subcommittee at both the morning and afternoon sessions and submitted to a rather vigorous cross-examination. It was with some reluctance that he disclosed names in connection with the charges he made of improper attempts to influence his vote, but finally on pressure gave two names. One of the persons named, he said, threatened him with defeat at the last election if he did not vote as desired on certain propositions. Mr. Lessler's charges are said to have lacked definiteness when he was interrogated by members of the subcommittee. The substance of his story was not that he had been actually offered a bribe of $5,000, but that it had been intimated to him that he could get $5,000 if he would vote "right."

Military Academy.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The military academy appropriation bill reported to the house carries a total of $644,273. The estimates were $696,455. Provision is made for the purchase of a tract of land containing 220 acres adjoining the academy grounds.

Against Fowler Bill.

Washington, Jan. 22.—A minority report, signed by Representatives Talbot of South Carolina, Thayer of Massachusetts, Lewis of Georgia, Pungley of New York, Paget of Tennessee and Bartlett of Georgia, all of the banking and currency committee, was made against the Fowler currency bill. It says that while the minority believes the present banking system is inadequate and inflexible the minority does not believe the bill will accomplish the purpose sought.

Gold Basis for Philippines.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The house debated on the Philippine coinage bill. The minority offered a substitute providing for the introduction of the American currency system into the islands and it received powerful support from Congressman Hill, a Republican of Connecticut, who declared that the proposition for the extension of the American system had the support of Secretary Shaw and other high officials of the treasury department.

Minister to Siam.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The senate committee on foreign relations agreed to recommend an increase in the diplomatic representation of the United States in Siam. At present there is a minister resident at Bangkok, who is also consul general. The committee recommends two officers instead of one, providing for a consul general and increasing the rank of the minister to minister plenipotentiary.

Gives Up Church Lands.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Senator Foraker introduced a bill renouncing on the part of the United States all right to the church lands in Porto Rico. The bill grants the right of naturalization to Porto Ricans and to the people inhabiting other possessions of the United States similarly situated.

Seek Light on Deposits.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The house committee on banking and currency favorably reported the resolution offered by Representative Sulzer calling on the secretary of the treasury for information regarding United States deposits.

Alaska Coal Claims.

Cured a Hopeless Case of Consumption.

For nearly four years I have had weak lungs, and for the last year I have spit up blood; sometimes I would almost strangle. I would feel just as though some one was grasping me by the throat to choke me. I was attended by a doctor, but he could not relieve me. I lost greatly in weight, my appetite was very poor, and I began to run down.

After taking but one bottle of Liquozone the hemorrhages from the lungs stopped, my appetite improved, and I began to feel much better in every way. The tired and weary feeling has left me, and I gladly recommend this wonderful remedy to all those afflicted with lung trouble.

BURGLARS ARE AGAIN AT WORK

Use Novel Means of Gaining an Entrance—Slide Down Dumb Waiter.

Burglars entered the saloon of Philip Reus, at No. 1 North River street last night and secured between $20 and $25 in money and about one hundred and fifty ten-cent cigars. The robbery was not discovered until Mr. Reus opened up this morning.

The thieves gained entrance to the saloon in a novel manner, and must have been well acquainted with the premises. Mr. Reus has rooms over his saloon which are connected with it by a dumb waiter, the shaft being large enough to allow a man to slide down it.

Uses Dumb Waiter
They forced an entrance to the upper room through a transom over a door opening into a hallway. Once in the room they opened the door into the hall to give them a chance to get away if they were discovered. There one of the party, evidently a small sized man or a boy, got into the elevator shaft and slid down to the bottom, where the door opening from the saloon into the shaft was forced open, letting the burglar out into the room. At the side of the elevator shaft is a door leading down from the saloon into a hall, in the rear of the First National bank, opening on River street. This lower hall is connected with the upper hallway by stairs, so that when the lower door was opened the men in the room above had only to come down the stairs and walk into the saloon.

Took Their Time
Once outside the saloon they evidently took their time to make a thorough search of the place. From one drawer back of the bar, they took a leather bag containing $6.50 in pennies and nickels. This drawer was not locked. The next drawer was the till which was locked, which they forced open breaking the lock, and secured eight or ten dollars in bills. From the cash register they took four or five dollars in silver and secured a few dollars more from another drawer which showed that they were familiar with the fact that Mr. Reus did not keep all his money in one place.

Good Cigar Judges
They next visited the cigars at the end of the bar and helped themselves to about one hundred and fifty ten-cent cigars. They did not carry off any full boxes, but cleaned up the open boxes of Belmonts, Grand Dukes and other well known ten cent brands.

Police At Work
Before leaving they emptied a bottle of whiskey and left the empty bottle just outside the door opening into the hall way. The police are inclined to believe that it is the work of local talent and have some clues that may lead to the arrest of the parties.

SUPPER FOLLOWED BY FINE PROGRAM

Social Club of the Congregational Church Entertained a Large Crowd Wednesday Evening.

Another of the pleasant monthly gatherings which under the auspices of the Social club are coming to take a prominent part in the life of the Congregational church, was held in the parlors of the church on Wednesday evening. The social was held in the Sunday school room, being preceded by a supper served in the parlors below.

A Good Program
Entertainment was furnished by a brief program which was thoroughly enjoyable, every number being one of exceptional merit. A ladies' quartet including Mesdames Minnie Menzies, W. S. Jeffris, and F. P. Lewis and Miss Franc Edwards, gave two pleasing numbers, singing "Legends," by Moehring, and "Last Night," by Kjerulf. They declined to respond to encores.

Oscar Halverson contributed to the pleasure of the audience by giving one of his delightful violin solos, "Berceuse," by Musso, Miss Helen Estes playing his accompaniment. Pleasure was also given by Mrs. Janet H. Day, who read a selection from "The Leopard's Spots," by Thomas Dixon, in her own matchless manner. An insistent encore was given but she declined to respond.

Young Girl Singers
Two vocal numbers by the girls' octette from the intermediate choir rounded out the program. They sang "Fly Little Dove," by Marzials, giving "Barefoot Boy" by Clayton Johns as an encore, and "How Sweet the Hunters' Song" by Kucken. The octette is exceptionally well balanced, each one of the girls having a very sweet voice. It includes Mabel Geeser, Gertrude Crandall, Edna Blanton and Vera Lynde, sopranos, and Miss Crandall, Ada Lewis, Agnes Greibel and Robena Keller, contraltos. Mrs. W. S. Jeffris, under whose direction the octette has been developed, played their accompaniments.

Many Enjoyed Supper
The supper, which preceded the social and entertainment, was one of the excellent ones, by which the ladies of the church have won an enviable reputation. Mrs. H. M. Dedrick and Mrs. Frank H. Farnsworth had it in charge and the prompt and efficient service was highly commended. There was the usual large patronage.

FELL DOWN STAIRS AND CUT HER FACE

Mrs. Horn Met with Accident in Crowd on Stairs, After Bingham Entertainment.

At the Y. M. C. A. building on Wednesday evening, the accident that is always feared in such a jam but rarely occurs, befell one of the ladies who had attended the entertainment given by Ralph Bingham. As she was descending the interior stairway some one trod on her skirt. She plunged forward, headlong, falling three or four steps to the floor below. A skin wound resulted, cutting her forehead and abrading her nose. The blood flowed so profusely as to cause considerable alarm among the onlookers. A doctor was at hand to dress the wound. It was found that the cut had resulted from the rim of her glasses. The injured woman, Mrs. Horn, was soon able to go to her home on Chatham street.

WOMAN SHARPER WORKS MERCHANTS

Tells a Pitiful Story About Recently Losing Husband but Stays at the Myers.

A number of Janesville charitably inclined citizens have been made the victims of a clever woman sharper during the last two days. She has been posing as a widow who had recently lost her husband and was trying to secure aid to get to her mother's home in the west.

The woman arrived at the Myers house on Tuesday afternoon and registered as Mrs. C. Gray of Walworth. She had a boy about ten years of age with her and was assigned a room by Landlord Johnson. She was about fifty-five years of age, well-dressed and looked as if she had money with which to pay her board.

Yesterday she made a canvas of the stores and business houses of the town, telling her story and soliciting aid. She had a paper stating that she had recently lost her husband and was in destitute circumstances and was trying to get to her mother's. She picked up quite a sum of money and had a long list of names on it when she applied to a prominent manufacturer for aid this morning. He thought she was all right and so contributed to the fund.

This noon while at dinner at the Myers house, he was surprised to see the woman and boy sitting at one of the tables eating dinner. He thought it very funny that a woman that was around begging should be stopping at the Myers and on investigation found she had been there since Tuesday. The woman evidently noticed him and saw that he looked at her rather sharply and as soon as she had finished dinner she went to her room and secured her grip and, left the hotel, going out one way and the boy slipping out another.

The gentleman told Landlord Johnson of his suspicions and he went to her room and found that she had left. Johnson at once went to the St. Paul depot where he found the woman and boy just ready to leave town on the 1:40 train. He demanded his pay of her and a stormy interview followed and finally when he threatened to have her arrested she produced enough money in small change to settle the bill and was allowed to go. She was probably a professional beggar and made a good living going from town to town imposing on the charitably inclined people.

ILLINOIS LEGISLATORS ELECT A. J. HOPKINS

Speaker Miller Declares Him the Choice of Both Houses—New Senator Makes a Speech.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—A. J. Hopkins of Aurora was formally declared elected to the United States senate by a joint meeting of both branches of the general assembly yesterday. Speaker Miller presided over the joint meeting of the two houses and, including Senator Hopkins' speech, the entire proceedings did not occupy over forty minutes.

On the speakers' dais were Gov. and Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Hopkins and daughter, Miss Fannie Hopkins; Mrs. Rose, wife of the secretary of state, and daughter, Mrs. McCoy; Mrs. Henry Davis of Springfield, and Miss Ethel Indermille and Miss Marion Chase of Chicago.

Next to the speaker were Gov. Yates and Secretary of State Rose.

The portfolios of the senate and house journals relating to the election of a senator were read. Then Speaker Miller said: "It appears from the reading of the journals of the senate and the house of representatives of Jan. 20 that Albert J. Hopkins has received the highest number of votes cast for United States senator. I therefore declare Albert J. Hopkins elected senator to represent the state of Illinois in the congress of the United States for the term of six years beginning March 4, 1903."

Representatives Wilkerson, Backus and Corigan and Senators Evans, Townsend and Butler notified Mr. Hopkins, who a moment later was escorted in and introduced by Speaker Miller.

Mr. Hopkins made a speech in which he thanked the legislators for the honor conferred and outlined his policy as senator.

MANY PLEASSED BY ORANGE SUPPER

Success Attended the Unique Venture Made by the Guild of Trinity Church.

Trinity church guild hall was a very attractive place on Wednesday evening on the occasion of the orange supper, which was served by the ladies of the guild. The hall was appropriately and beautifully decorated with streamers of orange colored paper and with paper oranges suspended by narrow ribbons. Five long tables were prettily decorated with orange paper and smilax, the one presided over by Mrs. Elizabeth Phelps winning special admiration for its beauty. A paper basket of oranges formed the center piece.

The other tables were presided over by Mesdames Harry Garbutt, Q. O. Curtiss and J. B. Stevens and Miss Ida Fox. Places at the tables were in great demand, the novel supper attracting a large number of patrons. The supper itself was excellent, the menu including creamed potatoes, cold meats, rolls, brown bread, pickles, salad, doughnuts, orange cake and orange jelly. The menu cards were pictures of oranges cut out of card board with the menu printed on the reverse side.

Touches of Bright Color
Additional suggestion of the nature of the occasion was given by the orange easy corner in which there were yellow sofa cushions in abundance and by the booth at which oranges and home made candy were sold. The young ladies who waited on the table also wore artificial flowers in the prevailing color. During the supper hours excellent music was furnished by Roy Carter at the piano and by Anna Smith and Lillie Crowley at the mandolins.

While all of the ladies of the Guild were interested in making the supper a success, special credit is due the committee which superintended the arrangements. This committee included Mrs. J. B. Stevens, Mrs. G. M. Dopp and Mrs. Wells.

Didn't Wait to Hear.
Hewitt—Gruett says that you are afraid of him.

Jewett—Afraid of him? Why, it was only yesterday that I called him everything I could think of.

Hewitt—What did he say?
Jewett—I came away from the telephone as soon as I had said all I had to say.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Laying In the Winter Coat.
Lady—It is a wonder you are not disgusted with the cheap beds in the lodging houses.

Trump—I am, mum. Dat is why I slept on a very costly bed last night.

Lady—Costly?
Trump—Yes, mum. I slept on a ton of hard coal.—Chicago News.

A Gentlemenly Bird.

"Maybe he doesn't like to say them in the presence of a lady."—New York Evening Journal.

Fact and Poetry.

Dr. Lyman Abbott is undoubtedly right in saying that we cannot sing of the nickel plated faucet as we did of the old wooden bucket, nor have the same feeling for the hole in the floor the heat comes through as we had for the old time hearth; nor can we write of the water bug in the pipe as of the cricket on the hearth. But who would go back to the poetic old-fashioned inconveniences?

The New Dance.

See that the new dances are to be slow and stately, one of them embracing a stunt like this: "The court pose, when properly done, brings the body almost in a sitting posture, with the right knee doubled under as a support and the left leg perfectly straight and thrust far forward." Large, portly citizens with scant wind doing this slowly and with stateliness will be a sight worth seeing.

Rail Scooters for Railroad Cars.
A railroad company is said to be conducting a series of experiments with a freight car the trucks of which are fitted with rail bearing journals. These, it is claimed, make the car run so easily that a single person can move it. If they prove practicable, rail loads can easily be doubled and hauled with the same power now used.

President Roosevelt's Frankness.
Mr. Ware, commissioner of pensions, was not much inclined to accept the position when it was first offered him. He told President Roosevelt so, saying: "I don't like that job." The President frankly answered: "I assure you, Mr. Ware, that the longer you have the place the less you will like it, but still I urge you to accept."—Exchange.

Quick Response: On the 15th of this month S. M. Fisher, clerk of Florence camp, No. 366, Modern Woodmen of America, sent in the insurance claim of the late Edson Baker to the head office at Rock Island, Ill. This afternoon Mr. Fisher received a check for $1,000 payable to Mrs. Wood, mother of the deceased.

Judging from the brisk sale of seats at the Myers Grand this morning there will be a large audience at the Storke's entertainment tomorrow evening. There are plenty of good seats left in all portions of the house.
